MRS. CHRISTINA COHAGEN
STRICKEN WITH APOPLEXY

Mrs. Christina Cohagen, wife of T. M. Cohagen, for many years a resident of North Platte, was stricken with apoplexy while attending the Crystal theatre Tuesday evening in company with her daughter Elsie. A taxicab was called, Mrs. Cohagen conveyed home, and a physician summoned, but the spark of life had fled. Mrs. Cohagen had been enjoying her normal health, had gone to the Crystal with her daughter and both were enjoying the program. Suddenly she gave a sigh or a gasp and fell forward. Attendants at the theatre gave the necessary assistance in conveying the stricken woman to her home.

Mrs. Cohagen, who was fifty-four years of age, was a woman who was beloved by all who knew her, and who did an unusual amount of good work in relieving the wants and distress of others. In her home she was a model wife and mother.

Bereft is the husband, two daughters and three sons, to whom the sympathy of the community is extended in the loss of wife and mother.

The funeral will be held from the residence, 403 east B street at 2:30 this afternoon in charge of the Christian Science society.

Gentlemen:

I desire to express my appreciation of your prompt service and satisfactory settlement of my claim for loss by theft of new tire and attachments stolen from my car, which was insured by you in the Union Auto Insurance Company of Lincoln, Nebraska.

GEO. B. DENT.

Numbers of North Platte business men are placing Red Cross Christmas seals upon their correspondence and are planning to do likewise in regard to advertising matter to be sent out for the New Year. Incoming mail invariably hold the tiny messengers of health and happiness.

Special sale of trimmed hats. My entire stock of trimmed hats at one-half price. A sale coming at an opportune time for gift selections for Xmas. Villa Whittaker, Block's second floor.

A petition has been presented to the city council of Kearney asking that a special election be called to vote on the issuance of one hundred thousand dollars of bonds to construct a municipal auditorium. This is in line with the move that North Platte will soon make to construct a community center at a cost of not less than $100,000. North Platte can afford such an expenditure as easily as Kearney.

Everything for the motorist that will make his Christmas a happy one. Edwards-Reynolds Co. 96-4

Mrs. Elmer Coates entertained at a six o'clock dinner Wednesday in honor of Mr. Coates' birth anniversary and the wedding anniversary of Rev. and Mrs. J. H. Curry. Covers were laid for twelve. Table decorations were red carnations and ferns and the same color scheme was carried out in the house decorations.

Starting in Monday with the harvest of 300 tons of ice from the U. P. lake, the output has increased each day as the working force has been augmented. Yesterday's cut was one thousand tons. The first cutting on the lake will total from 13,000 to 14,000 tons. Next Monday Manager Cuthers will take a force of men to Gothenburg to begin the ice harvest on the lake there.

Coming surprises for Christmas morn, something for your particular friend. You'll find it at The Leader Mercantile Co.

Writing from Chula Vista, Cal., Geo. W. Diener, late of Plant precinct, says in part: "Have bought five acres here and will stay awhile. If it keeps getting colder back there a few of you old-timers had better come to Chula Vista, the lemon country of the southwest. Weather here has been fine, with a few nice rains. Will have tomatoes for Christmas off our own vines. That's something you do not have in good old North Platte."

First Lutheran Church. Morning worship eleven o'clock subject, "When the Impossible Becomes Possible." Evening worship eight o'clock, subject, "A Call to Repentance." Special music. Sunday school at 9:45. Everyone welcome at these services. REV. C. FRANKLIN KOCH, Pastor.
